

"WITH UNITY AND FAITH IN GOD

Nothing Will Baffle Temperance Forces Against Evil."

SAYS REV. LEWIS AT FIRST UNION MEETING.

4. There is one body, and one spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling.
5. One Lord, one faith, one baptism.
6. One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all."—Ephesians IV, verses 4, 5 and 6.

The above verses served as Rev. J. T. Lewis' text at the Union Prayer and Temperance meeting at M. E. church Tuesday night of last week. This was the first of the proposed union meetings and Rev. Lewis' text and talk were very appropriate to the occasion. A large audience was present. Songs were sung with vim that has not before marked these temperance gatherings, earnest, soul inspiring, pleading prayers were offered to God to aid the organization to blot out the facing sin—whisky—and bring those who were dwarfed by this curse to Christ. The prayers were pleading not for the eradication of men who handle whisky but for the eradication of the whisky itself.

Rev. Lewis said that the temperance people should work as a unit and to the sole purpose of bringing men to God. He said that with unity and faith in God nothing would baffle the forces against evil.

The executive committee was instructed to arrange for several temperance speakers. J. D. Babbage was appointed to ask the Rev. Roe, of Irvington, to deliver a temperance lecture here on the following Wednesday night which will be tonight.

The Original.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated H. C. and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered as no other preparation will give the same satisfaction. It is mild, laxative. It contains no opiates and is safest for children and delicate persons. A. R. Fisher.

Results of Meridian Tornado.

Meridian, Miss., March 6.—The revised list of the dead and injured as the result of the tornado which swept through this city Friday evening shows a total of twenty-four dead and forty-six injured, a number of whom are not expected to live. No additional deaths have been reported since Sunday night.

The property loss has been semi-officially reported at $1,250,000, the estimated destruction of residences alone being placed at $500,000, practically all in the Lindsey Hill section of the East End and Georgetown. Of the sufferers from the tornado, only one carries tornado insurance amounting to $667,000.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this city most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles most always result from derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., P. O. Box 539, Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this generous offer in this paper.

Do not make any mistake but remember the Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, Binghamton, N. Y., is the address.

WHO SHE WAS

SKETCH OF THE LIFE OF LYDIA E. PINKHAM

And a True Story of How the Vegetable Compound Had Its Birth and How the "Panic of '73" Caused it to be Offered for Public Sale in Drug Stores.

This remarkable woman, whose maiden name was Estes, was born in Lynn, Mass., February 9th, 1819, coming from a good old Quaker family. For some years she taught school, and became known as a woman of an alert and investigating mind, an earnest seeker after knowledge, and above all, possessed of a wonderfully sympathetic nature.

In 1843 she married Isaac Pinkham, a builder and real estate operator, and their early married life was marked by prosperity and happiness. They had four children, three sons and a daughter.

In those good old fashioned days it was common for mothers to make their own home medicines from roots and herbs, nature's own remedies—calling in a physician only in specially urgent cases. By tradition and experience many of them gained a wonderful knowledge of the curative properties of the various roots and herbs.

Mrs. Pinkham took a great interest in the study of roots and herbs, their characteristics and power over disease. She maintained that just as nature so bountifully provides in the harvest-fields and orchards vegetable foods of all kinds; so, if we but take the pains to find them, in the roots and herbs of the field there are remedies expressly designed to cure the various ills and weaknesses of the body, and it was her pleasure to search these out, and prepare simple and effective medicines for her own family and friends.

Chief of these was a rare combination of the choicest medicinal roots and herbs found best adapted for the cure of the ills and weaknesses peculiar to the female sex, and Lydia E. Pinkham's friends and neighbors learned that her compound relieved and cured and it became quite popular among them.

All this so far was done freely, without money and without price, as a labor of love.

But in 1873 the financial crisis struck Lynn. Its length and severity were too much for the large real estate interests of the Pinkham family, as this class of business suffered most from fearful depression, so when the Centennial year dawned it found their property swept away. Some other source of income had to be found.

At this point Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was made known to the world.

The three sons and the daughter, with their mother, combined forces to restore the family fortune. They argued that the medicine which was so good for their woman friends and neighbors was equally good for the women of the whole world.

The Pinkhams had no money, and little credit. Their first laboratory was the kitchen, where roots and herbs were steeped on the stove, gradually filling a gross of bottles. Then came the question of selling it, for always before they had given it away freely. They hired a job printer to run off some pamphlets setting forth the merits of the medicine, now called Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and these were distributed by the Pinkham sons in Boston, New York, and Brooklyn.

The wonderful curative properties of the medicine were, to a great extent, self-advertising, for whoever used it recommended it to others, and the demand gradually increased.

In 1877, by combined efforts the family had saved enough money to commence newspaper advertising and from that time the growth and success of the enterprise were assured, until today Lydia E. Pinkham and her Vegetable Compound have become household words everywhere, and many tons of roots and herbs are used annually in its manufacture.

Lydia E. Pinkham herself did not live to see the great success of this work. She passed to her reward years ago, but not till she had provided means for continuing her work as effectively as she could have done it herself.

During her long and eventful experience she was ever methodical in her work and she was always careful to preserve a record of every case that came to her attention. The case of every sick woman who applied to her for advice—and there were thousands—received careful study, and the details, including symptoms, treatment and results were recorded for future reference, and to-day these records, together with hundreds of thousands made since, are available to sick women the world over, and represent a vast collaboration of information regarding the treatment of woman's ills, which for authenticity and accuracy can hardly be equaled in any library in the world.

With Lydia E. Pinkham worked her daughter-in-law, the present Mrs. Pinkham. She was carefully instructed in all her hard-won knowledge, and for years she assisted her in her vast correspondence.

To her hands naturally fell the direction of the work when its originator passed away. For nearly twenty-five years she has continued it, and nothing in the work shows when the first Lydia E. Pinkham dropped her pen, and the present Mrs. Pinkham, now the mother of a large family, took it up. With women assistants, some as capable as herself, the present Mrs. Pinkham continues this great work, and probably from the office of no other person have so many women been advised how to regain health. Sick women, this advice is "Yours for Health" freely given if you only write to ask for it.

Such is the history of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; made from simple roots and herbs; the one great medicine for women's ailments, and the fitting monument to the noble woman whose name it bears.

A Scientific Wonder.

The cures that stand to its credit make Bucklen's Arnica Salve a scientific wonder. It cured E. R. Mulford, lecturer for the Patrons of Husbandry, Waynesboro, Pa., of distressing case of Piles. It heals the worst Burns, Sores, Boils, Ulcers, Cuts, Wounds, Chilblains and Salt Rheum. Only 25c at Short & Haynes, drug store.

Out of Eorders.

Sixty-five counties of the State have voted licensed saloons entirely out of their borders; twenty-nine have licensed saloons in but one place, and only five counties allowed whiskey to be sold generally within their limits. They are Campbell, Kenton, Jefferson, Mead and Todd and each one of these counties has more or less "dry" territory.

If you are troubled with Piles and can't find a cure, try Witch Hazel Salve, but be sure you get that made by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. It is the Original. If you have used Witch Hazel Salve without being relieved it is probable that you got hold of one of the many worthless counterfeits that are sold on the reputation of the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

WANT TO PLACE SIXTY

GOOD BOYS AND GIRLS.

The Kentucky Children's Home Society has sixty boys and girls between the ages of three and nine for whom they desire good, Christian homes. These children are unusually bright and attractive and we guarantee that no family will be disappointed in a child we send them.

The winter months have given us an enormous amount of work to do. We are receiving more children now in a month than we formerly did in a year and as a rule, the children are much brighter and much better looking and much easier controlled than children we formerly handled.

Will you show your interest in this great work for humanity by giving a home to one of these little ones? Unless you have a first class home in every respect and unless you are moral and stand well in your community, do not apply, as we will under no circumstances, place a child in a home unless it can get the very best advantages.

This is the Master's work, inasmuch as he said "Suffer little children to come unto Me and forbid them not." If you are interested in this charity, and would like to take a child, please address the Kentucky Children's Home Society, No. 2116 Von Borries Avenue, Louisville, Ky.

Yours very respectfully,
George L. Sehon,
State Supt.

Cures the worst Coughs and Colds, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Weak Lungs, Hoarseness, and La Grippe. Guaranteed at Short & Haynes, drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Growth of K. P.'s.

"The Knights of Pythias are growing more rapidly in membership than any other fraternal order in the United States," remarked former Representative Thomas G. Stewart, grand chancellor of the Kentucky state lodge, at the Grand hotel, to a Cincinnati Enquirer reporter, "and now rank numerically next to the Masons, the Odd Fellows come first. The Odd Fellows and Masons have over 1,000,000 members each, and the Knights of Pythias enter the new year with over 700,000. Ohio is the banner Knights of Pythias state, with over 60,000 members, and Illinois shows up second. The order has increased its numbers more in Kentucky within the last two years than any other state and has at this time 12,000 on its rolls in the old commonwealth. If the Knights of Pythias continue their increase of membership in this decade as they did from 1890 to 1900 they will run ahead of either the Odd Fellows or the Masons. They have had class meetings in Chicago and Kansas City, in which 1,000 members participated."

"I Came, I Saw, I Prospered."

That's the universal report from the great Southwest, where prosperity is the common experience of the many. It is a report given, not boastfully, but rather by way of encouragement and advice. The Southwesterner is in a position to advise. He has passed from his previous condition of dependence, or partial dependence, to the most perfect independence. He has broadened his acres and increased his holdings three, five, and even ten-fold by the exchange of high-priced lands in the East for cheap farms of the Southwest, multiplied in extent—every acre "an acre of good ground." In a word, "his ship has come in." Can you afford to wait longer for yours? There are many similar opportunities still open in Texas Remedy for Rattlesnake Bites.

This paper notes with deep regret that a number of persons are dying from the bites of rattlesnakes in different sections of Texas. Most all cases are young children, and in a good many instances they are bitten on the hand or foot.

In such case the following remedy is said to be a splendid antidote for the rattlesnake's bite, provided it is used immediately after being bitten: Take a pan or bowl and pour in enough kerosene oil to cover the wound. It will draw the poison out immediately in the course of a few minutes and turn perfectly green; then pour out the oil and refill the bowl, being careful to put in enough oil to completely cover the wound.

Leave the foot or hand in the oil as long as the oil turns green. Then put on a poultice of plain table salt and saturate thoroughly with oil. Keep this up for about an hour and there is scarcely any danger of fatal results.—Merkel Mail.

Indigestion is much of a habit. Don't get the habit. Take a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure after eating and you will quit belching, puffing, palpitating and frowning. Kodol Digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by all druggists.
